Charity Head Lauds Local Relief Plan

City Making Investment In Good Citizenship Says
County Superintendent

"You are doing here the finest piece of social service work that has ever come to my attention," said Superintendent W. R. Harman of the Los Angeles Charities Department when he had heard reports of the local central relief committee read at a public meeting Monday night in the school auditorium.

"What you are doing here for the unemployed is an investment in good citizenship and I wish your spirit and system could be extended to other communities throughout the county," added the speaker, who expressed the opinion that the manner of handling transient applicants for aid here was ideal.

W. R. Humphries, local chairman of the Red Cross chapter, and chairman of the Central Committee, reported that 1955 meals had been served to children in both the public school and St. Rita's, and 1487 bottles of milk. This was done at an expense of $201. "Support of this work came from many sources," he said, "including the P.T.A., the school teachers and the city employees who give a percentage of their salaries. The Japanese association contributes $13.50 a month."

Mr. Humphries outlined the general work of the committee, and particularly urged all residents to discourage begging at doors. This had been almost eliminated, he said.

From Public Funds

On behalf of the city, and as a member of the committee, Mayor H. Clay Reavis, told what the city is endeavoring to do to relieve the unemployment situation. Work has been provided at the new city water basin, in clearing out the entrance to Bailey Canyon and the planting of 500 trees and will be made available through the city's plans to pave dirt streets and improve Central avenue.

"Our plan of relief here," he said, "has brought such good results that many other communities have sent representatives here to see how the relief work is handled."

In reporting on the work created for the unemployed through the cooperation of the city officials, Mrs. Jessica H. Wright, chairman of the committee to provide employment, quoted the following figures taken from the city records, covering the periods up to February 1st:

Extra work for the unemployed from July 1st to October 1st: $948 or 1896 hours. From October 1st to January 31st, $4663, or 9326 hours, equalling 1166 days; a total for the 34 a day men of $5,611. On the 35 cents

Push Plans For Beauty In The City

By John Copeland

Visitors from all the important nations of the earth will come to California for the 10th Olympiad. The world that has given us the name of the "land of fruits and flowers" will be sadly disappointed if we neglect our opportunities. There are six months in which to work on the beautification of the state. It is to the individual home owner that we must look for the ultimate results. We must remember that we will be working under conditions imposed by the climate and natural conditions: we can not depend, for instance, on the native California wildflowers during the month of August, the month of the Olympic Games.

This was the substance of a talk given at the city beautification dinner at the Woman's Club last Thursday night by Mrs. Sherman Hoyt. She further recommended flowers suitable for planting now that will be in full bloom by summer, including Petunias, lantana, lace verbenas, dwarf morning-glory, heliotrope, delphinium, hollyhock, phlox, marigolds, day lilies, gladiolus and rock daisy.

As Monrovia has officially decided to make use of the petunia for its parkway and vacant lot planting, it was suggested that Sierra Madre adopt a special flower. Miss Thomasella Graham, whose Lima street gardens are nationally known, moved that the verbenas be decided upon. It is likely that both the verbenas and the

Observations

By LEE SHIPPEY

WHEN there's snow on the mountains and a keen chill in the wind the frost is especially willing to the fellows who, when it's warm and bright, go about saying that "what we need here is old-fashioned winter." We miss them then, for they know if we didn't miss them we'd hit them.

We don't want to brag about Sierra Madre all the time, but we're willing to bet there's a higher proportion of folks who know just how to settle the Chinese situation in our barber shops every day than in any others.

The official flower for our town, for parkways and such, is the pink ivy geranium. The City Planning Commission adopted it long ago. At the meeting last week to discuss planting for the Olympiad, an upstart named Shippey, who hadn't been here long enough to know better, got up and proposed that the verbenas be made the parkway flower.

Before anyone who knew better could set him right, a resolution was adopted. Now the plan is to use both, and everyone in Sierra Madre should have one or both growing in his parkway before Olympic visitors arrive. Monrovia has adopted a flower. Let's race 'em to see which town comes nearest to getting 100 per cent results.

Here's our challenge, Monrovia, are you on?

Nearly Five Inches Of Rainfall Here In Record Weather

Sunshine came yesterday, with balmy temperature, in the wake of a week of rain and chill that smashed all records locally and in Southern California. After a three-day period of almost continuous downpour, beginning last Friday, the sun broke through the clouds for a few hours Monday morning, but during that day the elements of nature somehow got tangled, a vagrant cloud hovering over Sierra Madre sending down a brief deluge that glistened in scintillating beauty through the sunshine.

During the period from noon on January 30 to 5 o'clock Tuesday evening, 4.95 inches of rain fell at the new Sierra Madre home-made water basin on East Central avenue. At Mira Monte there was a rainfall of 4.82 inches. The new basin stood up under the severe test, and put the stamp of success on the city's plan for water conservation.

Precipitation at Col. Hersey's home was 4.59 inches for the storm, while the season's total of 17.85 inches considerably exceeded last year's total of 7.08 inches.

Col. Hersey forecast cloudy and unsettled weather over the week end.

Many Come To City's New Art Exhibit

Showing a distinctly modern trend in execution, work of seven Southern California art instructors, all graduates of the U. C. L. A. art department, went on exhibition last night in the Little Gallery in the city hall. Visitors at the opening showing were guests at a reception honoring Bessie Ella Hazen, instructor of landscaping at U. C. L. A. and Anne Bensinger, art director, Holmby College, Westlake School for Girls.

The exhibit, brought to the Little Gallery directly from the Westwood campus, is said to be one of the best water color exhibits in the Southwest.

Art lovers from Sierra Madre and surrounding valley towns thronged the large exhibit room, and were unanimous in their praise of the work. Mrs. Fred Griebonow was hostess at the reception. Her daughter, Margaret Griebonow, a student at U. C. L. A., is one of the youthful artists whose work has been exhibited in the gallery during its life of two years.

Including among the contributing artists at the exhibit are: Miss Hazen, Grace Haynes, art department of John Burroughs Junior High School; Miss Bensinger, Marie Scott, are department Alexander Hamilton High School; Francis Nugent, assistant art supervisor of Santa Monica schools and Martha Nathias and Dorothy Feldman.

The present exhibit will remain throughout this month.

Start Paving City Streets Next Monday

Way Will Be Cleared For Central Work Before Es-peranza's Completion

Unless the weather intervenes the city force will begin Monday morning the repaving of Esperanza street, under the new ordinance passed to help relieve the unemployment situation. The work on Central avenue, will not get started for some weeks, owing to the necessary legal delays.

The city engineering force will submit plans and specifications for the Central avenue improvement to City Council next Wednesday night, when they will probably be approved. It will then be necessary to prepare a resolution of intention, which will probably be passed at the following session of Council, and after that the way will be clear for the work to begin.

Business Manager Myers pointed out yesterday that the delay in the Central avenue matter will in no way affect the employment situation. "There is only a certain amount of work to be done in the city and funds to do it with," he said.

"At the present time we are employing men at the city water basin, at Bailey Canyon and in Canyon Park, so they are being kept busy. If we started Central avenue we would have to take them off that work."

The plans for Central avenue curbing the placing of curbing where there is none at present, paving with rock and oil at the East end, and the changing and fixing of cross sections.

The grading of Sunnyside avenue was finished this week. The graders are now working on East Grand View avenue.

Girls Star In Game Of Basketball

Thrills and excitement marked a basketball game in the Congregational Church gym last Tuesday night when two teams composed of Sierra Madre girls clashed in the first of a series of games that promises to keep the ball rolling for the rest of the season. The game was won by a team captained by Miss Angie PerLee. Edith Hawks captained the opposing five. Miss Virginia Jones was the referee. The final score was 20 to 10.

Irene Middough and Elsie Lichnog were forwards on the winning team and both showed amazing skill in handling the ball. Miss PerLee was at center and Dot Walsworth and June Lacey served as guards.

Jane Holland and Ann Green were forwards of the losing team. Edith Hawks was at center and Dot Ranahan and Berthe Lee Fitzgerald at the guard positions. Captain Hawks gave a star performance.

The game developed so much enthusiasm and disclosed so many star players that other games will be arranged, and other teams organized, out of which an all-star five will be selected to challenge girl teams from outside schools and communities.

Organizers backing the idea, who include Miss Virginia Jones and Mrs. Madelin Smith, hope sufficient girls and women will turn out to form four or more teams. Games will be played every Tuesday night until school closes next June. Each month a social of some description will be held.

No one is disqualified from joining the group who is old enough to play.

Reception To Dean Bode Is Postponed Because Of Illness

Owing to the illness of Dean Bode, the reception in honor of him and Mrs. Bode, which was to have been at the Parish House this evening, has been postponed.

Dean Bode has been confined to his bed since last Monday with an attack of flu and, as there have been so many cases of severe relapses in that illness this year, his family and friends felt he should not take the risk that would be entailed by the reception.

A date for the reception will be set when the Dean is fully recovered.

Assessment On Property Will Be Cut

20 Percent Cut In Value Of Buildings And 10 On Land,
Says Chief Appraiser

A twenty per cent reduction in the assessment on building throughout Los Angeles County has been decided upon by the county assessors office, it was revealed here Tuesday by A. W. Dodge, chief appraiser under County Assessor Ed Hopkins.

Mr. Dodge, who spoke at the Kiwanis luncheon at the Woman's Clubhouse, said that the appraisers office is debating a 10 per cent reduction in county land assessments for county purposes.

The reduction in assessments is a recognition of the fact that there has been a material decrease in property values, but this of itself does not bring tax relief to the taxpayer. The tax rate is set by the board of supervisors after consideration of assessment totals and total governmental expenses. Any decrease in property values, which result in less governmental revenue, will have to be made up in some manner unless offset by decrease in governmental expenses. On this basis the taxpayer will pay approximately the same amount only at a higher rate.

Building assessments, Mr. Dodge declared, will be reduced to bring assessment valuations down to the level of present construction and replacement costs. The speaker also discussed general assessments and pointed out that in the majority taxpayers should not protest against them as in most cases they voted the projects for which the assessments are made.

Guests of the luncheon also heard A. L. Schaffer, manager of the Pacific Coast area of the American Red Cross, who complimented Sierra Madre's handling of Red Cross work, and outlined the aims and desires of the national relief movement. The organization, he pointed out, exists under authorization of congress, who gave it rights of any other governmental agency. Under this authorization the organization may, in times of emergency, call on other branches for assistance and supplies, he said, giving as an example the requests made the army for blankets and tents during flood emergencies.

Wistaria Committies Are Named

Committees to handle the various details in connection with the city's annual Wistaria Fete were appointed this week and have started to work in the hope of making this year's event the greatest yet held. It will be under the direction of the Volunteer Fire Department but a community event in every sense. Chief Richards announced the appointment of the following committee chairmen:

Frank Lovell, advertising and publicity; Guy F. Scott, parking; Donald Hosford, grounds; Mrs. William Lees, luncheons and teas; Mrs. Phillip Senour, palms, wistaria vines, marmalades, etc.; Mrs. Frank Lovell, perfume booth; Mrs. W. L. Hibbs, post cards; Mrs. Roy Walsworth, candy; Police Chief Gordon McMillan, traffic.

Construction of the booths, of which there will be six, and of six picnic tables, will be finished early next week at the latest, Chief Richards said. The booths will be used for the display and sale of perfumes, postcards, candy, powders and food.

The exact date when the fete will be held depends upon the appearance of the first Wistaria blossom, Chief Richards said. Last year the first blossom appeared about February 21 and the fete opened March 14. The present cold weather may make the vine blossom later this year, he said.

1,400 Registered And City May Yet Reach 1,800 Goal

With nearly 1,400 voters registered under the new law the seven canvassers employed in Sierra Madre under the direction of the county register, have about completed their rounds. There are many qualified voters still unallied—ones the canvassers were unable to catch at home, who still have the privilege of registering at City Hall. It is expected that before the zero hour the anticipated registration of 1,800 will be reached here.

SISTER OF LOCAL MAN HAS HAIR RAISING EXPERIENCE WITH HONOLULU BANDITS

Convicts Stole Auto And Drew Gun On Her After An Exciting Chase

A small incident in the racial difficulties now disturbing Honolulu, which might well have developed into a major one with a reaction felt even in Sierra Madre, was revealed today in a letter received by Frank Lovell, whose sister, Mrs. D. W. Cardell, is en route to Manila from the islands.

The incident in question was part of the sensational escape and capture of two dangerous island felons, one of whom was a convicted murderer. Both convicts escaped from Oahu Island prison New Year's Day. The following day one of them, Louis Kaikapu, attacked a young married woman, stole a quantity of valuable jewelry and clothing, and departed wearing the tuxedo coat of the woman's husband. He was captured shortly afterwards driving a stolen automobile and still wearing the coat.

According to the letter received from Mr. Lovell's sister, who is a radio entertainer and wife of a naval warrant officer, she, her husband, and several friends came into contact with the convicts the night of their escape. The Cardells discovered someone had stolen their automobile while they attended a birthday party given in honor of Mrs. Cardell. Following the discovery the manager of radio station KGU, over which Mrs. Cardell performs, offered to drive the couple home. While filling the gas tank at a corner service station, the party saw the Cardell machine drive

Hum Home Song At Big PTA Banquet

Certain members of the P. T. A. today did ordinary daily tasks to the sound of humming. The song they hummed was a tune selected from "Dawn Boy," operetta presented by grammar school children recently, with words written by Mrs. Cecil Allen, author of the operetta.

On February 16 the humming Sierra Madreans will attend a P. T. A. "Founders Day" banquet in Pasadena, where they will be expected to make a group response. The song will be the response was agreed upon Wednesday at a meeting held in the school auditorium.

Well known speakers will discuss the curtailing of school taxes following the dinner which will be held at 6:30 o'clock at the Pasadena Junior College in honor of George Washington's birthday.

There will be a special table for all Sierra Madreans. Although it is not necessary, everyone able to wear colonial costumes is urged to do so. Men are especially invited. Reservations for the dinner may be made with Mrs. W. J. Adwell by telephoning 199-4.

Burglary Is Bared When Thief Caught

Comes In Sheriff's Custody
To Identify Sunnyside Avenue Home He Robbed

Evan E. Anderson, prize winner in the half-acre home farm contest, was surprised to learn this week that his home at 388 North Sunnyside avenue, had been robbed on January 25th. Chief of Police Gordon McMillan was likewise surprised, as no report of either a robbery or burglary had been made—in fact the police record of Sierra Madre for months had practically left the department unemployed.

Chief McMillan was sitting in his office last Saturday when two deputy sheriffs from the Altadena station walked in with a third man, a stranger.

"Meet Robert Rhodes," they said to McMillan. "He was a recent visitor in your town."

"Glad to know you," said the genial McMillan, rising and reaching out his hand.

"Not so fast," said the sheriffs.

"Mr. Rhodes is no friend of yours. It seems he committed a burglary here. He doesn't know where, that is he doesn't know whose house it was. But he has been kind enough to come here to point it out. So if you have time Chief, we'll go out with him and let him look around."

Rhodes led them to the Anderson home. "There was no one at home," he said, "so I broke the lock on the rear door. All I took was a few guns and blankets."

The police found the rear lock broken. They entered the house. All the rooms had been ransacked. Anderson was summoned from Los Angeles. "The house has been closed since last Sunday," he said, "My work keeps me in Los Angeles during the week but I come home every weekend to look after the garden and orchard. After my mother's death I had a tenant here but they left a month ago."

Rhodes was trapped in Altadena after eight burglaries had been committed there. He was traced through his car, the number of which had been picked up at the scene of one of the robberies. In the loot in his home the sheriffs found three rifles and several Navajo blankets, which he said he had stolen in Sierra Madre.

Evan Anderson's prize small farm won national fame last year in the garden contest. It is the most prolific half-acre in America. The plot is 187 by 140 and the planting consists of 25 avocados of 11 varieties, eight oranges of three varieties, three lemons, one grapefruit, one loquat, one walnut, eight figs, two cherimoyas, nine persimmons, one sapota, 10 guavas, eight grapes, two passion fruits, 14 peaches and one quince. In a recently published article he said he had found peace and happiness in developing the place, with little more work than had been required on a 50 by 135 lot in Los Angeles.

Milestones In Lives Of Local Pupils

Twenty-four members of the sixth grade class of Miss Mary Sheppard Wheeler, will end their careers at the Sierra Madre Grammar school today and on Monday enter Woodrow Wilson Junior High School in Pasadena. ## Hot Lead

By Judge W. R. Lasater

MONDAY EVENING meetin' wasn't so 'or'ly bad at that. About 25 present. Good eats plenty of wood for the fire place and an unusually good natured crowd offset the bad night outside.

During a very heated debate on parliamentary rules Comrades Allen and Burroughs suddenly developed a violent case of "jumpy squawks" as they felt the "urge." After some careful study of their antics, Austin Gibbs figured Darwin was right.

Wanted Volumes By O'Neil And McAdoo On Library Shelves

With 29 new borrowers helping to send the total of borrowed books higher each month, the Sierra Madre Library during the past month added to its shelves 20 fiction and non-fiction volumes and subscribed for three new magazines, according to a monthly report released by Miss Lulu Moore, librarian.

During January a total of 4,672 books were borrowed from the library, Miss Moore reported, with withdrawals by adults accounting for 54 per cent of the total fiction and 28 per cent of the total non-fiction withdrawals. Juvenile withdrawals accounted for 17 per cent of the total.

New fiction books purchased during the month were: Lone Wolf's Son, L. J. Vance; Changing Years, Payne; Sky-scraper, Baldwin; Their Father's God, Rolvaag; Harbourmaster, McFee; Mr. and Mrs. Pennington, Young; Silver Bride, Dell; Mary's Neck, Tarkington; Man From Sing Sing, Oppenheim; Arizona Ames, Grey, and Beyond the Rio Grande, Raine.

Non-fiction books were: Christ of the Mount, Jones; Wellington, Guedalla; Sorry but You're Wrong About It, Wiggam; We are Alaskans, Davis; Television, Felix; Memoirs, Buelow; Crowded Years, McAdoo; Mourning Becomes Electra, O'Neil, and Living Philosophies.

JOHN F. HOWARD NEW VALLEY AGENT FOR THREE CAR LINES

John F. Howard has accepted the agency for Studebaker, Pierce-Arrow and Rockne cars, and opened a sales room at 135 West Foothill Boulevard, Monrovia, where he has all the late models on display. Mr. Howard, who for many years was identified with the automobile industry in Pasadena, with the three makes of cars, varying from the popular low prices to high priced models, is in a position to service all the nearby valley communities.

Mr. Howard has taken a house at 623 East Foothill boulevard, and installed his family. He has long been prominent in social and fraternal circles. He is a member of Corona Lodge No. 324, F.A.M., and also a member of the Reserve Officers Corps.

E. L. Sapp will continue to operate a service and repair shop in the same building with Mr. Howard.

University of Southern California has turned over $50,000 to charity and to aid in unemployment relief, the sum being provided by the Trojan share of the gate receipts in the New Year's Day game.

An effort is under way in Monrovia to duplicate Sierra Madre's position as "the Wistaria City." In Monrovia the P.T.A. is endeavoring to have that city titled the "Petunia City" in preparation for the Olympic Games.

Railroad workers numbering 1,500,000 have accepted a 10 per cent wage cut effective from January 31, 1932 until January 31, 1933. The cut will save railroads throughout the country approximately $250,000,000.

Air taxis, to eliminate parking congestion, will be a feature of the Centenary of Progress Exposition in Chicago next year. Air-jitneys and amphibians will travel from the municipal airport, up and down the lake front, carrying passengers and sight-seers.

There were "only" 344 murders and 717 suicides in Chicago during 1931 as against 434 murders and 730 suicides in 1930, but the number of deaths due to automobile accidents increased from 1100 in 1930 to 2291 in '31—the greatest percentage of increase since the coming of the motor car.

The use of cigars and cigarettes dropped last year and the use of playing cards increased. Total cigars taken out of bond, 5,318, 892,528, a decrease of 571,000,000 as compared to the previous year. Cigarettes dropped 6,200,000,000 to 113,449,048,657. Nearly 49 million decks of cards were sold.

Blasts of two tunnel gangs boring diversion tunnels at Boulder Canyon Dam Monday proved the gang foremen of precision. The gangs came "face to face" after one had bored downstream through 2134 feet of rock and the other gang upstream through 1416 feet of rock. The two tunnels met perfectly. The completed tunnel is the first of four to be used to divert Colorado River water while the dam is under construction.

A thundering herd of tourists, representing a veritable trail of gold, swarmed into California via every available highway during 1931, shattering all existing records, and making the tourist business one of the state's major industries. A total of 872,214 California-bound tourists "checked in" at the state's 28 border quarantine stations situated in 15 counties, during 1931, according to Dudley Moulton, director of the state department of agriculture. This is an increase of 63,338 tourists over the 1930 "crop."

Surest Way To Get Business And Bring Prosperity Back

"The only thing that will restore business as a whole is for each and every one of us to restore his own business," declares Earnest Elmo Calkins in Advertising and Selling.

"Advertising has not lost its power. These are the same people who were such enthusiastic customers two years ago. They still must live. They still have the same wants and desires. We got them to buy through advertising when money was plenty. Do we expect them to buy without advertising when money is scarce? "Nearly every business that has been determinedly and confidently pushed this year has succeeded and has made money. Some of them are retail stores and some are manufacturers. They still believe in advertising. They are still confident of the future. They know some people have money, they ask for it and they get it. They are the little spots of prosperity in a sea of depression, not enough yet to leaven the whole lump.

"But if each shop and store and factory and service station will endeavor to sell with all its might and main, and use advertising with the same courage and confidence it did when business was good and people were buying without urging, these little spots will soon cover the country and business will be good.

"All wealth comes from dollars in motion, rolling around the country, buying goods at the retail store, going on back to the factory to buy more goods, paid by the factory to its workmen or for more raw materials, spent by the workmen for goods at their retail stores.

"The only known way to set dollars in motion is by advertising, by making the goods or service so tempting, so desirable, so needed that they will bring in the dollars of those who still have them and thus supply dollars to those who now have none so they too can buy things.

"Advertising will do that if we put our whole soul into it and put good merchandising behind it. We must believe in our own advertising if we expect others to believe in it.

"If a million storekeepers do this now it will put business in high gear—not immediately, there is nothing miraculous about it—but it will be motion and that motion will be forward and upward. And that is all that's needed."

HEALTH in the HOME

Practical Studies for Wives and Mothers

By Dr. ERNEST H. LINES

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

MANY wives and mothers do not realize to what a great extent they have it in their power to control the health and, therefore, the success, happiness and longevity of their husbands and children. Good health is the principal source of physical energy, and the mind and body are so interdependent, the one upon the other, that our mental energy, also, depends greatly upon the state of our health.

People who are full of vitality are usually cheerful and happy. Happiness, in turn, is an aid to health. Moreover, since good health increases our physical and mental energies, one of the best ways of preparing ourselves for success is to keep our bodies fit at all times.

Many men, women and children are lacking in cheerfulness or are sluggish, languid, irritable, or depressed, simply because they are ill, or, at least, are not in good physical condition. Restore them to perfect health, their spirits rise and they display more energy and interest in their work and in life in general.

The husband's energy and fitness for efficient work, the children's ability to attend school regularly and do well in their studies are at stake. Many a child, considered dull in school and at home, has really been (physically) incapacitated by malnutrition or by some undiscovered physical impairment.

Health is affected, favorably or unfavorably, by our habits of living, according as they are good or bad. In great part, these habits of living are habits of preference for certain kinds of food, for certain methods of cooking, for proper or improper ventilation, suitable or unsuitable clothing, as well as hygienic or unhygienic ways in the care of the body.

QUESTIONS:

All wives and mothers should be able to answer these questions: 1. Why is a healthy family usually a cheerful one? 2. How can a wife or mother help to keep her husband and children in good health? 3. What are some of the principal habits of living that affect health?

Preference Goes To Local Labor On San Gabriel Dams

All construction firms bidding on contracts for the San Gabriel Dam No. 2, which is scheduled to actually be under way by February 15, will be asked by the county board of supervisors to give San Gabriel valley labor the preference in employment.

This was disclosed at Monday's meeting of the board, when it was ordered that bids for the structure be immediately advertised. At that time plans and specifications for the dam, to cost approximately $3,000,000, were filed. Bids are returnable February 8.

Employment will be offered 1500 men, the full complement probably will not be on the job before Spring. Under a recently enacted state law the workmen must be paid in accordance with the prevailing wage scale for all classes of labor.

Plans for the dam at Site No. 1 will be checked next week by State Engineer Hyatt in Sacramento. If approved bids for that work will be advertised at once.

WARFIELD'S BIGGEST HIT IS BEING REVIVED

Headed by Ralph Freud, favorite of over 100 productions, "The Music Master," famous Belasco comedy-drama by Charles Klein was revived at the Pasadena Community Playhouse opening last night to run until February 13.

Freud plays the title role of Herr Anton von Barwig, created by David Warfield.

Ruth Covell Levison plays the leading feminine role. A family dinner party was held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Albrecht, 687 West Alegria avenue, in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Eunice.

SCREEN'S GREATEST THRILL AT THE LYRIC

JOHN BOLES and MAE CLARKE in "FRANKENSTEIN"

A new era in motion picture subjects—which even the most rabid admit change as often as the seasons of the year, will be heralded in this vicinity Sunday when "Frankenstein," Universal blood chiller, comes to the Lyric Theatre in Monrovia, for a three day run.

Featuring Boris Karloff, in the name role, with Colin Clive, John Boles and Mae Clarke supporting, the film is probably the most outstanding producer of thrill and shock ever turned out by a motion picture company.

The picture contains so much matter of blood curdling nature that advertising of the show carries the following friendly warning: "If you have a weak heart and cannot stand intense excitement or even shock, we advise you not to see this production."

"Frankenstein" is the adoption of the novel of the same name, written by Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley. Published in more than a dozen foreign languages, the story has provided countless thousands with cold shivers. Now the cycle begins once more.

New Vestry Meets To Plan 1932 Budget

The new vestry of the Church of the ascension held its regular monthly meeting last Monday evening. Dr. Barlow and Messrs. C. F. Vannier, Jedney Davis, Thomas Meader and Samuel Graham were present. The chief business was the drafting of a letter to be sent to all Episcopalians in town, which included a budget of $3300 with which to meet the church obligations for 1932.

The vestry hopes that new pledges will be forthcoming this year in addition to the thirty odd of last year. The treasurer's books were turned over to Miss Lydia M. Webster. J. H. Robertson was indisposed and could not be present. Dean Bode has been confined to the house since the meeting, with a bad cold.

During their visit in the north they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Forsythe, owners of the Indianola Ranch, Fresno; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hammond of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Gleason of Piedmont, and Selby Oppenheimer of San Francisco. Under the direction of Mr. Oppenheimer Mr. Thayer will appear in San Francisco in concert with Louisa Trazzini. Mr. Thayer has been engaged to appear with the famous diva on her tour of the Pacific Coast states.

UNUSUAL WEATHER BRINGS ON BROWN ROT

Citrus growers in many districts this year are suffering from a serious loss of fruit because of brown rot, which this year on account of certain weather conditions, has had an opportunity to develop, according to Farm Advisor M. B. Rounds. Growers, especially of lemons and navel oranges, are advised because of this situation to make a careful note of the trouble, and next fall decide to spray early as a preventative measure for the disease.

FOREIGN WAR VETERANS OF VALLEY TOWNS IN ONE POST Future meetings of local members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held in Arcadia, it was announced today, where a new organization comprising members from Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Temple, Monrovia and South Santa Anita has been formed. The post will be named the "Lucky Baldwin Post No. 2070." Meetings will be held in the Masonic Temple on East Huntington Drive.

Only 19 mountain lions now make their home on the Angeles forest, according to the annual report of Superintendent Mendenhall. Other predatory animals include 260 coyotes and 712 wild cats. The forest supports no elk, moose, antelope, or bears, the report says. All of the deer population belongs to the species known as "black-tail." During the year, predatory animals are reported to have killed 235 deer and automobiles to have killed 35 deer.

Leap Year Calendar Marks Dates of Annual Citrus Fruit Exposition

—BY C. H. P. A.

There are some real red-letter dates on the 1932 February calendar and pretty Miss Pat Rich, Glendora High School girl, smilingly presents a page marked with the dates of the National Orange Show at San Bernardino. The show will have a Colonial scheme — Washington's birthday falls during the show — hence the scene showing the First President posing for his portrait at Mt. Vernon. Many beautiful Colonial paintings will mark the Orange Show decorative plan.

CHILDREN STUDY RURAL LIFE ON VISIT TO LOCAL DAIRIES

Seeing cows get milked and washed, some of them getting their first glimpse of bovine home-life, 17 youngsters from the School of World Friendship of Pasadena visited nearby dairies last Saturday. Their escort and guide was Miss Ruth Murphey of Sierra Madre, who directs their Sunday classes.

Children who visit the Model Dairy on Paloma street with their parents are given a free pony ride by David Christy the proprietor. "We have found that youngsters enjoy riding the horses around the place with the cattle. They feel like real cow-boys here. They also enjoy watching the production of the milk. We extend this invitation so that all can see the great care and cleanliness that is used in producing the natural raw milk from the Model Dairy," said Christy.

The dairy is quickly reached by going west to the end of Central avenue through the Hasting's ranch and then down to Paloma street where a sign invites visitors into the grounds.

Ansel Bristol, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bristol of 135 East Highland avenue, entertained six Pasadena friends last Friday afternoon, the occasion of his birthday.

NEW MOUNTAIN VIEW HOTEL OPENS ITS DOORS

Under the management of Julius Church and I. Katzman, the Mountain View Hotel at 225 North Lima street opened for business last Sunday. Accommodations for 50 guests can be provided, the proprietors declare.

The grounds and building of the new hostelry have been completely renovated, with workmen scheduled to finish clearing of brush and pruning of trees today or tomorrow. A splendid view of both mountain and valley is available from windows of the hotel.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB GIVES AUTO PARTY FOR MEN

The members of the Friendship Club will entertain their husbands with an "automobile" party at Community Hall, Congregational Church, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. This is an annual event and an evening of fun is anticipated by all. A door prize will be given to the lucky winner. Mrs. Florence Wilhelm is chairman of the evening's program and will be assisted by Mrs. William Adwell, Mrs. Clarence Barker, Mrs. Lella Osterhoudt, Mrs. Roy Pickett and Mrs. Alvin Langley.

PUSH PLANS FOR BEAUTY IN CITY

No Time Like Present

C. J. S. Williamson, head of the Los Angeles beautification committee and member of the chamber of commerce there, spoke of the necessity for prompt planting, whatever the selection of seed or slip might be. He commented on his favorable impression of Sierra Madre's extensive tree planting. Since his last visit to the city four years ago much has been added to the beauty of the streets by the many recently planted trees and shrubs, he said.

Mr. Williamson said that in his opinion Bailey Canyon would someday be a widely known beauty spot, second not even to the city's famed wistaria vine, Sierra Madre is very fortunate, he said, in the many natural splendors it possesses.

Lee Shippey boasted of his prowess in the field of devilgrass raising and told of the fame California enjoys throughout the world for her flowers. His informal discourse, and the verbal fencing between Mrs. Hoyt and he, furnished much amusement.

Cool colors should be used in the planting of summer flowers, a minimum of red should be used, said Mrs. Hoyt. Miss Graham suggested that blue is a fine and cool summer color.

gested that blue is a fine and cool summer color.

Ask Cooperation

Dean Arnold Bode's plea that the city put forth all possible effort to provide for the unfortunate and unemployed, to beautify them as well as the sidewalk parkways was received with applause. He emphasized that a pair of good socks and a clean necktie will do much toward keeping up the morale of a destitute man.

W. R. Humphries made clear in his short talk the connection between the local relief work and the beautification plans. Making work, and making beauty are both the goal of the city, he said.

Jim Hawks told of the work being done in Bailey Canyon, and suggested that the City Planning Commission be named the head of all plans for beautification and that the representatives of the various organizations interested in cooperating in the work confer with the Commission. His suggestion was well taken by all present. South Pasadena's plans were discussed by Mrs. Criswell, president of the Garden Club of that city.

An extraordinary good turkey dinner enjoyed by more than 125 persons was served before the various speeches. Virginia Jones, president of the Woman's Club, presided over the discussion.

Hunters Roam Over Local Ranches In Quest Of Coyotes

In the wee sma' hours of the dawn today retribution stalked neighborhood coyotes, when members of the Pasadena Chapter of Isaac Walton league opened a second hunt for coyotes who have killed peacocks and quail on the Santa Anita and Baldwin-Stocker ranches and in outlying sections of Sierra Madre. A similar hunt was held last week and two coyotes slain.

Coyotes have been banqueting on the ranch's fowl life for some time, according to Foreman John Stecher, who played host to the hunters. Although many of the beasts are known to have dropped down from the hills, the most destructive band had its lair in a dense thicket in which water from the hills collected. During last week's hunt six coyotes were routed here, two being killed and a third wounded.

The presence of coyotes has been reported by many Sierra Madre residents whose chicken houses have been raided. The animals have been seen crossing Sierra Madre avenue at night.

Foreman Stecher declared that in the past year coyotes have reduced the ranch's flock of prize peacocks approximately 50 in number, as well as doing much harm to nesting quail.

Occidental college has reversed itself on the subject of baseball. Two weeks ago the board of athletic control decided to drop the sport because of a lack of competition. Early this week baseball was reinstated, with practice scheduled to begin February 15.

THREE STATES HOLD PICNICS NEXT WEEK

Under the auspices of the Federation of Ohio State Societies all former residents of Ohio are invited to a picnic reunion on Lincoln's birthday, Friday, February 12th, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles.

The Wisconsin state picnic will be held all day Saturday, February 13th, in Sycamore Grove Park. The president, Col. Frank H. True, will preside and invites all those from that state to meet for this great picnic reunion.

President L. E. Garber, of the Colorado State Society has announced the annual picnic for all former residents of that state, Sunday, February 14th, in Sycamore Grove.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

When all was said, the Firemen fed, and old Bob Babbit gone to bed:

At half past two, the siren blew and down Windsor Lane, Bob Babbit fled.

The first one there, in mad despair, he manned 'Old Snort' to do or dare.

He drove her out and just about tore off the doors—a sad affair. He did not know what was a glow, or where or how he was to go.

He started south with open mouth, his teeth were whistling high and low.

Ah, Ha! says he, I think I see the fire up north, beyond that tree.

So without fear, he changed the gear, and started north, in ecstasy. The hose got caught, the fire grew hot, no other firemen on the spot: Bob looked around, Ah! then he found the fire was on the Wisconsin Lot.

"I must be brave, although a slave," our hero said, as his heart he gave. "I can't perceive, just why they'd leave me fight alone altho' I crave."

The house of fame was all aflame, so Bob was worried about his name. He tore his clothes as he dragged the hose, to conquer this would bring him fame.

Alone he fought with selfish thought, he said "I'll surely save the lot."

He layed the line and sprayed the vine as from a window "Help," yelled Scott. Amidst the splash, there came a crash as Scott came through the window sash.

Scott landed fine on top the vine a single blossom did he mash. Our hero Bob then gave a sob, still playing water on the job.

Until the fire, due to expire, was little warmer than a knob. Bob full of pluck then jumped the truck, still thinking what a piece of luck.

The steering wheel he gave a reel and off he fell like a kneeling duck.

Right on his head from out of bed, Bob rolled as he was seeing red. And from the floor, with head all sore, he said "Where have these firemen fled?"

And now since we all know that Walsworth's middle name is "Jefferson," we are not out of order when we call him "Jeff."

If Milt Steinberger's name was only Mutton, we would be all set.

IN YOUR GARDEN

By Jessie Ward Russell Landscape Gardener

IT WAS gratifying to see how many went to the dinner at the Woman's Club House last Thursday evening to hear the speakers who were endeavoring to interest the general public in brightening up our Southland for the visitors during the Olympic Games.

Most of us can remember when we first came to California and our impressions, I for one, arrived here during the hot and dry month of September and was disappointed because there was so much dry, brown grass when I had been used to seeing everything covered with vegetation. But the palms and tropical fruits I did see, helped to make up for the rest. In those days there were not so many gardens in Sierra Madre and few street trees and no planted parking strips. I can still remember the Fan palms at the Santa Fe Depot, the orange orchards along Baldwin avenue, and the pepper trees at the Pacific Electric station.

I am giving these impressions to show how important it is to have something green and something flowering when our visitors come to town. Now the visitor will not have so much bare ground to look at and if we can still further beautify our grounds, planting flowers and brightening up our lawns, they may overlook the bare lots and see only the color.

It is too bad that our street trees are not complete and uniform but we cannot grow a tree in such a short time so we will have to get along the best we can in the way of trees but we can cover the bare parkings and dress up our front yards.

The City Planning Commission and the Garden Club of Sierra Madre Woman's Club have both been active already in starting something in the way of covering up bare parkings. I believe they have chosen the Pink Ivy Geranium for Central avenue and have already interested some of the property owners in planting their parkings to these plants.

The Ivy Geranium is particularly adapted for this purpose because it is quite permanent. It needs only a moderate amount of water. Each year in the late winter, the plants should be pruned back almost to the crown of the plant, the ground dug up lightly and some fertilizer applied if possible.

Another ground cover that I particularly favor is the trailing Lantana. It is the most permanent of all the ground covers we use here and the color will harmonize with nearly all other colors. It is true, the trailing Lantana was quite badly frosted this winter, but few flowering plants escaped being nipped this year. For years past the trailing Lantana has not been frosted and has bloomed right through the winters. The Lantana should be pruned back early each spring so that a new growth may grow in the spring and summer. The plants will grow in proportion to the heat they receive. During the months of July and August the Lantanas will make miraculous growth and there is never a month in the year when it will not be covered with bloom unless it should become frosted during some extra cold spell.

If one should want to use yellow as a color for their parkings, the yellow Gazania is splendid as it also is very permanent. It makes a dense mat of green foliage and always has a scattering of yellow daisy-like bloom. In the spring it blooms most abundantly, when it is a mass of yellow flowers. There is an orange colored variety of Gazania also but it is not so desirable for it blooms only in the spring.

Vergenas and Petunias are also suggested for covering parking strips and they are both splendid for quick effects but not particularly long lived unless they have most excellent care and are pruned back at least twice a year. Vergenas come in many colors, the best being rosy-pink, lavender and crimson.

The Rosy Morn variety of Petunias are probably the best of the Petunia family for covering ground as they grow low and spreading and the color is a cheerful bright pink. They are very draught resistant.

We would suggest planting any of the above plants one and one-half to two feet apart. The average 50 foot parking which is about 6 feet wide would require from 75 to 100 plants.

School Children Finish Essays On George Washington

Pupils of the sixth grade of public school this week finished and turned in their essays on George Washington, in the contest being conducted in the local schools as part of the bicentennial anniversary of the first president's birth. These pupils will graduate and be enrolled in the Woodrow Wilson High, in Pasadena. Members of the fifth grade class are still working on their essays and will finish them next week. The pupils of St. Rita's, where a separate contest of the same kind is in progress, will probably turn in their papers next week.

Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, principal of the public school, said yesterday that details of the public ceremony on February 19th, when the winners will be named and the prizes will be awarded, are about completed. The program will fit the occasion, and the pupils of both schools will take part.

Commander Embree, of the local Legion, which is sponsoring the contests, will represent the national Legion in distributing the medals.

Woman's Club Notes

RECIPROCITY day will be celebrated Wednesday, February 10, by the Sierra Madre Woman's club when state and district officers and club presidents will be entertained. The day's activities will open with a breakfast at 11 o'clock in the morning at which time the introduction of a number of distinguished guests will be made.

For the afternoon program Mrs. Fletcher White, program chairman, has planned a delightful hour of music by Sierra Madre artists that will be a genuine treat to all music lovers. Donald Thayer has a baritone voice of matchless loveliness, and Miss Orlene Burrows will present a group of violin solos.

Fifty invitations have been issued to officers of various clubs and a large number of out-of-town guests is expected. Club members are requested not to bring local guests to luncheon on that particular day. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Percy Kortkamp. The afternoon program is open to the public for the customary admission for non-members.

Art section members report a most pleasant trip on February 1, when at the regular district meeting held in the Los Angeles Public Library, Thomas H. McKay gave a most interesting talk and "Demonstration of the Technique of Water Color." After luncheon at the Student's Union, U. S. C., a pilgrimage was taken to the museum to view the Memorial Water Color Exhibit of Theodore B. Modra.

Since uncertain weather conditions would make an out-of-door meeting undesirable, the next meeting of the garden section will be held February 8 at 10 a.m. in the Osgood room at the club house.

Mrs. W. J. Lawless, chairman of the section, announces the subject to be considered as "Olympiad Beautification with the Maximum of Permanence." There will be a brief review of the speakers' presentation of this subject as made at the garden section dinner sponsored by the club which was held Thursday evening of last week.

A forum will be held on interpretations possible in Sierra Madre. Miss Thomasella H. Graham will speak on "The Verbena" and Mr. H. E. Allen, at 11 o'clock will speak upon "The Advantage of plowing instead of burning off vacant lots."

Members of the local P.T.A. and of the Esther Forman Garden Club will be guests. All club members, whether identified with the garden section or not, are invited. Those who care to do so may bring their sandwiches. Coffee will be provided.

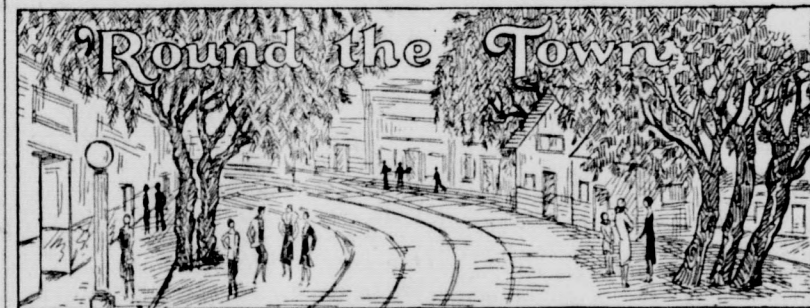

Mrs. Lawless says that the progress made in getting parkway strips planted has been remarkably encouraging.

The attention of property owners interested in 'dressing up' their lots in honor of the Olympiad is called to the garden articles by Jessie Ward Russell which appear each week in The News and which contain many valuable suggestions and information indispensable to every home gardener.

Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, chairman of the drama section, announces the second of its four scheduled meetings to be held in the Osgood Room of the club house at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 11.

CHARITY HEAD LAUDS LOCAL RELIEF PLAN

an hour work for those who can not do the $4 work, a total of $408 has been paid to local men, making a grand total for the local men of $8,019, of which over $5,000 has been paid since October 1st.

Get Much For Little
The total paid to transients in merchandise orders was $128.60. This covers the period from November 1st to February 1st, three months.

Mrs. Wright's analysis of the work given to the transients and the reasons therefore, covered the same ground as the report in last week's News, but she called attention particularly to what had been accomplished for the welfare of the community as a whole through this course of action. She showed that the solicitation of food from door to door had practically ceased, that the transients come into town by the main streets, are sent direct to their work, are brought back to headquarters and given their merchandise orders which they exchange for food mostly, and they go out of town immediately by the main streets. The citizens as a whole never contact them, and the women and children in their homes need have no fear of "tramps."

Good Investment
She quoted Judge Lasater as saying that his docket had never been so clear of petty cases arising from the vagrant element. She claimed that Sierra Madre had done its bit to help the unfortunate victims of the depression who are drifting through the country and at a minimum cost to the taxpayers. In this connection, she stated that the foreman who handles these transients say practically all of them are good and willing workers, and they estimate the city gets 95 cents worth of work for every dollar spent on them. "But putting it down to 90 cents or as low as 80 cents," said Mrs. Wright, "it has cost this city just $25.72 not for three months to help these men help themselves and to keep our city clean of undesirables. How much would sufficient police service to accomplish the latter have cost?"

In closing Mrs. Wright said: "I want to call to your attention the appreciation due the City Council and the Business Manager for their grasp of the needs of the situation, their assumption of responsibility as city officials for the safety and wellbeing of the whole community and the efficient businesslike manner in which they have co-operated with the relief committee, expanding their work program to meet urgent emergency yet always with proper regard for the taxpayer."

Work For Months
"They have secured from the county $16,000 for Central avenue, which will be used in this relief work. That, with the dirt road program, should provide enough work to take care of our estimated budget for seven or eight months."

The report of C. W. Jones, treasurer, showed a total of $2,921.92 received, and expenditures of $1,482.86, leaving a balance of $1,439.06.

The report follows:
Memberships and donations, $2,838.22; loans returned, $38.92; merchandise sales, $44.78. Maintenance: Office expense, salaries $239.75; stamps, stationery, $62.41; total $302.16. Miscellaneous: Overhead, cleaning floors, plumbing, gas, elec., keys, etc., $22.79; Advertising, $29.55; Equipment, $41.06; total $395.56;

Food Is Big Item
Local Relief: school lunches and milk, $217.71; lunches, $8.55; groceries to homes, $58.30; meat to homes, $9.03; milk to homes, $56.46; new clothing, $17.85; re-conditioned clothing, $277.50; first aid equipment, $4.68; labor, $315.70; loans, $107.00; miscellaneous, gas, elec., railway tickets etc., $14.32; total $813.10; National Red Cross, $250; Total expenditure, $1,482.86; cash balance on hand, $1,439.26.

Social service report, October 12, 1931 to January 31, 1932: local applicants for work 200; jobs found for men, 77 temporary, 3 permanent; jobs found for women, 40 temporary, 5 permanent; merchandise distributed by field worker and office—garments

354; shoes 112 pairs; blankets 112 pairs; comforters 19 pairs; mattresses 1; layettes 4;

Milk furnished 343 quarts; seeds distributed for 14 gardens; kets 34; social service investigations 683; letters written 82; notices sent out 490; groceries from Red Cross store $35; Thanksgiving baskets 27; Christmas baskets in homes 21.
